Our Mulwala Wall Art

71 Melbourne St, Mulwala

The Our Mulwala Wall Art is an installation erected on the external wall of the Mulwala Council Office and Library incorporates cultural and historical photographs of Mulwala etched into aluminium to create a unique way to display history. The artwork is a joint project between the Mulwala Library History Group and the Federation Council.

Our region is rich with wonderful experiences, from ancient Indigenous and colonial history to contemporary arts and cultural attractions.

Our largest towns of Mulwala, Corowa and Howlong run west to east along the northern bank of the Murray River.

We've mapped out our murals for you to start at any point, you might want to start early and be back in time for dinner, or perhaps spread it over a couple of days, and enjoy other highlights along the way.

However you plan it, keep an eye out for some surprising art. It could be just around the next bend...
